

SECRET

PLANS AND OPERATIONS STAFF

I. Mission

As a staff officer of the Agency, the Chief, Plans and Operations Staff, is charged with the formulation of Agency policy for the production of foreign intelligence affecting the national security.

II. Functions

The Chief, Plans and Operations Staff, shall:

- A. Develop in coordination with the intelligence components of the Federal Government and the Assistant Director for Intelligence Production an integrated program for the production of National Foreign Intelligence.
- B. Formulate and develop policies governing Agency intelligence production, review and issuance.
- C. Determine policies for all inter-Agency requirement activities.
- D. Ascertain the effectiveness of collection action by CIA and external facilities and recommend such corrective action as is necessary to provide adequate coverage.
- E. Formulate and develop Agency dissemination policies in coordination with appropriate Agency activities.
- F. Obtain from primary users constant evaluation of adequacy of CIA produced intelligence.
- G. Evaluate and recommend CIA action on providing new or expanded intelligence services of common concern.
- H. Continuously evaluate and ~~make~~ recommendations for the effectiveness and improvement of the substantive operational performance of CIA activities.

P&O

SECRET

SECRET

- I. Provide CIA representation on and control CIA liaison with the NSC staff and such other staffs or committees as may be determined by the Director.
- J. Coordinate and collaborate with the CIA Management Officer in the preparation and operation of the Management Improvement Program.

K: Historical Functioning of the Agency?

SECRET